

RECORDER'S OFFICE INVESTIGATION PUSHED

Pointed Questions Hurlled at Current Recorder Inquiry

By POLITICUS

Observers of county politics and operations are asking one another if the current investigations in Martinez will result in a white washing of the county recorder's office or if the district attorney will demand the entire matter be brought into court.

"What's there to examine in the recorder's office," said one employee of the county. "The grand jury isn't going to find anything in the fee book that doesn't tally," he continued.

THE PROBLEM lies with the fees that were paid that weren't recorded in the book. A rough count shows that about seven to ten people a day make requests for duplicate birth or marriage certificates. Over a 20 day work month this would total approximately 200 requests or if each paid a fee of $1 a total of $200," he said.

One employee stated that the fee book shows that only 30 to 40 persons made these requests in a month yet the unofficial count of persons making the purchases still holds true.

How many times $1 fees have been put in the pocket of an employee rather than in the cash box is unknown even by the old-timers of the hall of records crew.

THE ONLY way to get to the bottom of the whole mess is to get every person in the county who ever obtained a duplicate birth certificate to bring it in and see if it is recorded in the fee book.

"That's the only way to see how many times $1 or $2 has been slipped into the pocket of somebody and how big an operation this really is," said an employee of the recorder's office.

One high county official stated that the entire investigation to this point had not been very thorough.

The only persons who had been questioned in the matter were Ralph Cunningham, the recorder, a veteran of over 30 years, service to the county, James Todesco, a senior clerk, who admitted kicking back $12 a month to Jack B. Haule, an intermediate clerk, and Haule.

Two Sailors Face Concord Charges For Contributing

Two sailors off the USS Fire-drake accused of contributing to the delinquency of minors, will appear in court at 1:30 p.m. today accompanied by the ship's commander, J. G. Williams.

Leonard Lioning, 20, and Leo Jack, 19, were arrested last Friday when Officer John Huddleston spotted them throwing a beer can from their car near Willow Pass Road.

WITH the sailors in the car was a 14-year-old girl who admitted drinking beer and a 13-year-old girl. Both were taken to Juvenile Hall.

The case of the two sailors has been postponed until today at the request of Commander Williams due to a short shakedown cruise of the USS Fire-drake.

Both are charged with possession of alcoholic beverages by minors as well as the contributing charge. Jack was also cited for being drunk.

ANOTHER man, Clyde Bell, 27, was also charged with contributing to a minor's delinquency when he was arrested Saturday with a 12-year-old boy in Concord. Bell admitted supplying the lad with beer.

In still another case involving minors plus alcohol James Nelson, 19, of San Pablo and a 17-year-old Richmond companion were charged with petty theft and alcoholic beverage possession after a Saturday night arrest.

Arrested for the beer drinking, the youths were also charged with theft when the truck of their car was found to contain a total of 12 hubcaps.

NELSON and his companion were charged with receiving four of the hubcaps from a car located on the Dam Road. Sheriff's deputies had broadcast the car clout earlier Saturday night.

Housing Authority Official Quits Job, Questions Asked

By ROBERT RAPIDA

In light of the resignation of C. A. Hills, comptroller of the Contra Costa Housing Authority Wednesday, numerous questions were being asked in Martinez and the central county area of alleged Housing Authority irregularities.

Here are just a few of the many questions being asked:

WHY DID A VETERAN of 10 years with the Housing Authority resign after an investigation of the Authority by a federal investigator and charges of irregularities made to the board of supervisors and the grand jury?

When will the Contra Costa Grand Jury ask that J. J. Sullivan, a federal investigator, report his findings of a recent investigation to the grand jury?

WHY WAS A CAR owned by George Weiss, a director, turned over to a Walnut Creek car dealer on a new car, and then registered to the Housing Authority the very same day?

Accusations of misappropriation of government pipe and misuse of government equipment have been made against Ronald Howard, the director of the housing authority.

He refuses to comment.

ACCUSATIONS have been made against Gerald Gill, chairman of the board of directors of the Housing Authority, that he used his position for personal gain.

Records of the Housing Authority show that a party was given for employees of the Authority at Gill's Marsh Creek Lodge.

A check made out to a catering company, The Gress Catering Company, in excess of $500, was allegedly endorsed by a member of the Gill family.

THE GRESS Catering Company is said to be owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gress of Concord Boulevard, Concord. Reports state they work for Gill.

Accusations and data of questionable travel allowances, destinations and expenditures by Housing Authority officials may be on their way to the Justice Department by a federal investigator.

These accusations were made in an open letter and in conversation by Fred Anthon, ousted maintenance superintendent of the Housing Authority.

Anthon stated in his open letter to the grand jury, the press and the board of supervisors that he had been discharged from his post after he gave testimony to Sullivan concerning the irregularities in the Housing Authority.

The Authority states that Anthon was released due to budget cutbacks.

FEDERAL INVESTIGATION is underway into Housing Authority operations and there are indications that a federal summons may be issued in the next 30 days, according to Anthon.

Incorporation Town Meet To Be Held Monday Night

Under preparation for the past several weeks, the Town Meeting on the subject of Orinda incorporation, called by the Orinda Association board, will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in the Orinda School Auditorium.

Gene Estes, president of the association, will be moderator of the meeting, to which the general public is invited.

Details of the gathering are being arranged by Kirk Miles, chairman of the community contracts subcommittee of the association's committee on incorporation.

Professor T. J. Kent, teacher of city planning at the University of California and recently elected Berkeley city manager, is scheduled to speak at the Town Meeting, according to Miles.

Miles also reports that an effort will be made to present pro and con arguments on incorporation, as well as to answer various technical questions.

Ernest I. Spiegel, veteran civic leader in Orinda and a director of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, is general chairman of the committee on incorporation.

The present association board is not on record for or against incorporation, but for some time it has been endeavoring to bring facts before the public and to arrange for an official election to be called by the County Board of Supervisors.

IN ADDITION to providing information on the subject of incorporation, next Monday night's Town Meeting will serve as a "kickoff" for a renewed drive for signatures to petitions asking that the Board of Supervisors schedule an official election in Orinda on the question of incorporation of Orinda as a city.

The petition subcommittee chairman is Herb Waterman, who announces that on the two week-end following the Town Meeting—May 11-12 and May 18-19—an intensive petition drive will be conducted by some 75 men and women volunteers, who will concentrate on areas not covered in the petition drive of last year.

A briefings and educational session for petition circulators was held Tuesday night in the all-purpose room of Glorietta School. Waterman was chairman of the session. He introduced the two main speakers, Fred Rust and Dick Bartle, both of whom were on last year's incorporation study committee. Of present they are on the research subcommittee of the committee on incorporation, with Rust as subcommittee chairman.

Siegel was also present at the briefing session.

Canvassers were told that signatures of property owners at about 300 or 400 more homes will probably be necessary in order to obtain the required signatures on petitions.

Required are signatures of at least 25 per cent of the property owners in Orinda, who must represent at least 25 per cent of the assessed valuation of the land, unimproved.

It was explained that more than 25 per cent of the homeowners in Orinda have signed incorporation election petitions, but that the signatures thus far obtained represent only approximately 18 per cent of the assessed valuation of the land, unimproved.

Speakers stressed that signing of the petitions does not necessarily mean being in favor of incorporation. They emphasized that signing of petitions is for the purpose of bringing the matter to an official vote by the people of the community.

It was announced that Mrs. Mildred Simon will be in charge of the petition-circulating north of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and that Bob Bowles will be in charge of petition-circulating south of Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Slide Damage Suit by Owners Set for Hearing

Property owners in Orinda filed suit last week for a total of $21,673 in damages allegedly resulting from construction of the Orinda Interchange.

Hearings on the suits were set for May 21 by Presiding Judge Homer W. Patterson of Superior Court.

The suits are being brought against the state and the contractors who built the road, and will be tried by a jury in Judge Norman Gregg's department.

The property owners charge that excavating for the 1½ million project in May, 1954 caused a hill on which their property is located to slip and slide.

The executors of the estate of Mrs. Nellie Livingston, who lived at 20 Brookwood Road in Orinda prior to her death in September, 1954, are asking $15,000; Robert and Elizabeth Shephard seek $5673 as owners of an adjoining lot; while Catherine L. Cox and Virginia M. Le Gault of Piedmont are suing for $6000 damage to their property at 16 Brookwood Road, Orinda.

Jaycees Elect Dana President

Newly elected president of the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce is Jim Dana. He will succeed Jack Martin.

The new officers will be installed at the Orinda Jaycees' meeting at 8 o'clock the night of May 14 at the Orinda Willows.

Elected with Dana April 23 were: Monte Haslett, first vice-president (re-elected); Jack McPhee, second vice-president; Ken Prior, secretary; John Newell, treasurer; Fred Cummings and Al Young, directors, and Bob Wale, state director.

RAUL CUNNINGHAM
COUNTY RECORDER

THIS IS A COPY of a duplicate birth certificate which was issued April 18 by the County Recorder's office. The copy was issued by Jack B. Haule, who has since resigned due to health reasons. The copy shows that a fee of $1 was paid, yet the recorder's fee book shows no record of this transaction. The sheriff asks that all persons who have had dealings with the recorder's office in matters of duplicate birth certificates or marriage licenses report to the sheriff's office as quickly as possible so that a thorough check may be made of the number of persons who have obtained certificates against the number of persons who have been recorded in the fee book.

Recorder's Office Explains Shortage In County Funds

"No receipt system is fool proof and anybody could walk off with county funds," Ralph Cunningham, Contra Costa Recorder, told The Sun Tuesday in Martinez.

This was in answer to a question asking why the recorder's office did not use any form of receipt system.

"We have always trusted our employees and have never had any trouble before. In fact, if the people concerned (James Todesco, a senior clerk, and Jack Haule, an intermediate clerk who has resigned for health reasons) would have come to me rather than going over my head, the entire matter could have been taken care of quietly."

Everyone has been misquoted so often that the entire matter is in utter confusion," Cunningham added.

Asked why one duplicate birth certificate, which had been paid for, had never been entered in the fee book, Cunningham asked Todesco to step over from his desk and help explain the matter.

They stated that on April 18 Todesco found four slips of paper which had jotted on them the names and amounts of payment for duplicate birth certificates. Three of these were entered in the fee book and the fourth, the one in question, was entered under some other name, they explained.

"The reason it was entered under some other name was that we didn't know just who paid for it. We entered it under some name such as O'Day or something like that. We don't remember," Todesco and Cunningham agreed.

Public Schools Week Officially Closing Tonight

Public Schools Week in Orinda comes to a close officially tonight.

The week, which began Monday, was celebrated in traditional fashion with Open Houses at each of the five schools in the district.

Parents and visitors were welcomed between the hours of 7:30 and 9 p.m. at the various schools. On Monday both Del Rey and Sleepy Hollow held Open House.

Orinda School opened its doors to visitors on Tuesday evening. Glorietta School's Open House night was Wednesday, and Pine Grove displayed its students' wares last night. Public Schools week offers parents, teachers and administrators the opportunity to become better acquainted with one another, and for general public to get a better idea of the work at our schools," said Joseph L. Sheaff, superintendent of Orinda schools.

Background to Recorder's Office Investigations Told

Contra Costa County Recorder's office has been under investigation since April 18 when a shortage was found in the accounts of Clerk Jack B. Haule.

In addition, salary kickbacks to Haule by James Todesco, a senior clerk in the office, were disclosed.

April 18 a Walnut Creek resident went to the recorder's office to obtain a duplicate copy of a birth certificate. He paid $1 to Haule and received the certificate.

LATER IN THE SAME DAY the sheriff's department learned the sheriff had not received a receipt and that he informed the county that Haule had put the money in his pocket.

The sheriff's office called County Auditor Howard McNamner and McNamner called the district attorney's office.

Further check by the sheriff's office showed there were other payments for duplicate birth certificates which were not entered in the fee book.

Next, it was learned that Todesco had been paying $12 a month to Haule since Haule had given up his seniority to Todesco so that Todesco could take over the chief clerk's job in the recorder's office. This was Recorder Ralph Cunningham's explanation of the transactions.

HAULE RESIGNED April 19 on grounds of ill health.

Cunningham denied knowledge of the kickbacks or the missing funds but stated that when one person gets a promotion or someone else gives up his seniority, it has been a common practice in county government to pay that person part of the salary increase.

Todesco, in return for Haule's favor in giving up his seniority rights, kicked back $12 a month, Cunningham explained.

Under Section 1195 of the Government Code, salary kickbacks are a felony offense.

APRIL 22 THE grand jury met to investigate the charges of kickbacks and pocketing of county funds. The grand jury ordered the grand jury auditor and audit committee to study the records of the recorder's office.

The district attorney was instructed April 23 by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors to keep a watchful eye on the entire situation.

Tuesday the district attorney reported to the board that he was only interested in the criminal aspects of the case and that the grand jury was conducting a study. District Attorney Francis Collins did not indicate that any criminal prosecution is being considered.

The same day, Sheriff Harry Brown issued an appeal to all residents who have had dealings with the recorder's office in matters of duplicate birth, marriage or death certificates to notify his department at once so that a study can be made.

Wednesday the audit committee of the grand jury met and de-

Orinda School Set for Exercise In Civil Defense

"A full-scale evacuation drill" will be held today at 1:30 p.m. at Orinda School, reports Principal William Gaskell.

Some 450 children from the kindergarten through the sixth grade classes at the school will participate in the civil defense exercises, Gaskell said.

Also scheduled to take part are about 150 parents, who will have their automobiles at six "staging areas" in the school vicinity.

Traffic will be halted on Orinda Highway near the school area so that the teachers can lead groups of pupils from the school to the "staging areas," where the parents will assume charge, Gaskell said.

County civil defense leaders and Orinda School District officials will witness the evacuation drill, according to Gaskell, who estimates the entire exercise will take about a half-hour to complete.

Charges of 'Whitewashing' Hurlled in County Probe

Charges of "whitewashing" and misuse of office funds were being hurled this past week in Martinez in light of investigations into the county recorder's office by the District Attorney's office, the grand jury and the sheriff's department. Another duplicate birth certificate which had been paid for was found not to be registered in the fee book of the county recorder's office.

Sheriff Seeks Data on Duplicate Birth Certificates

Every resident of Contra Costa County who has obtained a duplicate birth certificate or marriage certificate from the County Recorder's Office was asked to report to the office of Contra Costa Sheriff Harry A. Brown.

The sheriff said he would check out every birth or marriage certificate against the recorder's fee book in an effort to learn how many times county funds had been "slipped into somebody's pocket."

FIVE CASES HAVE been already reported to the sheriff and every person who has ever dealt with the recorder's office in matters of duplicate certificates, records or licenses is asked to call the sheriff at Martinez 3000 or VE 4-4111.

"Since only very few receipts were ever given out in the Recorder's Office to customers, it is of prime concern that every resident who has ever obtained a duplicate certificate or record report to the sheriff's office," Brown said.

"WE WILL CHECK each individual case and check it against the Recorder's fee book. This is the only way in which the county can learn the true scope of the operation," Brown explained.

"There is every indication that there is a great deal more to this than the petty theft of $1 or $2 a month," Brown concluded.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY Francis Collins was unavailable for comment on the current investigations into the operations of the county recorder's office.

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors asked Collins to report to them on his investigation of the recorder's office. Collins told the board Tuesday that he was only interested in any criminal aspects of the case.

SHERIFF HARRY A. BROWN stated that Jack Haule, and James Todesco, had admitted "kickbacks" and were both subject to section 1195 of the government code.

Shortages had also been found in the books of Haule and charges were made that Haule had been slipping the fees collected for duplicate copies of birth certificates into his pocket.

Glen Whalen, grand jury auditor, stated that a new system of recording payments would be started in the recorder's office. Each payment would receive a number and would be listed in one or more filing sections.

Whalen stated that the recorder's records were "very incomplete" and that it would be almost impossible to make any thorough study of any type.

Whalen had been instructed by the grand jury to make an audit of the recorder's books. The supervisors instructed Collins to keep a watchful eye on the situation and to keep them informed.

THE NEED of consolidating the recorder's office with either the auditor's office or the county clerk's office was also ordered to be studied by the board.

D. M. Teeter, administrator, will conduct the study.

Whalen termed the birth certificate and death certificate records as a "hit and miss" proposition in the way through.

Whalen stated "It is impossible to tell how much money has been collected for the certificates and it is impossible to trace the papers through photostats because no record was kept of them either."

THE AUDIT committee of the grand jury is headed by William Anderson of El Cerrito.

Whalen stated that on some days there were no entries made in the fee book of persons requesting duplicate birth certificates.

The sheriff stated that one resident of the Walnut Creek area had requested a duplicate birth certificate and had seen Haule pocket the money.

The sheriff's office checked with two persons in Los Angeles, two in Berkeley and one other who gave the numbers and dates on the duplicate certificates, said Brown.

THERE WERE NO records of any of them in the recorder's fee book.

Whether or not the district attorney will ask for an indictment was not learned as The Sun went to press.

He paid $1 to Jack Haule, who has since resigned his position in the county recorder's office for reasons of health, and was given the duplicate.

The sheriff's office checked back through the fee book to see if the payment had been posted. It hadn't. At that point the report was made to the auditor's office.

THE INCIDENT was reported to the Contra Costa County Sheriff's office April 18. The sheriff's office notified County Auditor Howard McNamner of the discrepancy. McNamner in turn notified the district attorney's office.

The Sun learned Tuesday that the district attorney's office had no knowledge of the case.

Under Sheriff John Jagard stated that the person who had made the complaint to the office said that he asked for a duplicate of his child's birth certificate.

He paid $1 to Jack Haule, who has since resigned his position in the county recorder's office for reasons of health, and was given the duplicate.

The sheriff's office checked back through the fee book to see if the payment had been posted. It hadn't. At that point the report was made to the auditor's office.

SEE EDITORIAL PAGE

RECORDS in the sheriff's office showed that the person could not file a complaint since he had not been victimized.

Sheriff Harry Brown said, "He got what he paid for. The only thing is that the county didn't get the money, or at least the money has not been recorded."

Section 1195 of the Government Code of the State of California states: Acceptance of part of the salary or fees allowed a deputy or a subordinate officer is a felony. Every officer of the state, or of any county, city or judicial district who accepts, keeps, retains or diverts for his own use or the use of any other the salary or fees allowed by law to his deputy or other subordinate officer is guilty of a felony," said Brown.

REPORTEDLY James Todesco employed in the recorder's office, was kicking back $12 a month to Haule to hold his job. Glen Whalen, the grand jury auditor stated, after being instructed by the grand jury to audit the recorder's books, that he records were "very incomplete."

The Board of Supervisors instructed Teeter, county administrator, to coordinate findings of the Grand Jury audit committee and the District Attorney, Francis Collins, and then inform the board of the joint findings. The action took place Tuesday in Martinez.

HIGH COUNTY officials state that it was the district attorney's duty to ask for an indictment against Todesco, Haule and Ralph Cunningham, the recorder, under Section 1195 of the government code.

Whether or not Collins asked for the indictment is not known. McNamner told The Sun that the auditor had a "general responsibility" for funds but did not handle receipts. The auditors department learned of the irregularities in funds for the Sheriff's office and he reported the facts to the district attorney's office the same day.

THE AUDITOR has not investigated the records office in the past year since the grand jury audit last fall had given that department a "clean bill of health."

"It is possible that we will go into the recorder's office in the future," said McNamner.

"In my memory I don't ever recall the recorder's office ever being checked by my department," he continued. He also said that while understanding that embezzlement was in a different category from theft that the amount of money involved was "definitely in the petty theft category."

RECEIPTS are only issued upon request and that while he, personally, asks customers whether or not they wish a receipt chances were that receipts would not be issued to most people unless they made a point of asking for one.

Amateur Radio Plan Approved

Amateur Radio in Contra Costa County's Civil Defense program has made notable progress in the past year. First and of most importance to the county is the approval of the Contra Costa County Civil Defense Communications Plan. This plan is an outline of data required by the Federal Communications Commission and the Federal Civil Defense Administration in respect to communications facilities employed in Civil Defense operations, particularly those connected with the Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service. This plan outlines the method by which the Radio Amateurs will operate during Civil Defense emergencies and drills. A copy will be sent to all participating amateurs in the near future. Next is the arrival of 21 Gonset Communicators, 15 on six meters and six on two meters. These units were purchased by the county and the Federal Civil Defense Administration for use by amateurs in this area. These communicators will be distributed to participating amateurs for use in Civil Defense activities. In addition to the communicators, antennas have been purchased for permanent installations at locations throughout the county. Our control center here at the Communications Building has been revamped slightly; our former operating positions have been partitioned into four rooms, one of which has been set aside for amateur radio equipment. A committee of five radio amateurs is presently working on the distribution of the communicators and a standard net procedure. The net is active on Monday night. The transmitter hunts are held every third Monday night. Activity in the future should be much greater when the communicators are allocated.

Correction on Store-Movings

In its doubling of space, Country Club Togs, sportswear store at 101 Orinda Highway in Orinda Village, has expanded to include the store next door. This additional space was formerly occupied by the Village Cleaners, which has moved to the quarters that had been occupied by the Village Shoe Shop before the Village Shoe Shop moved to the new Village Shopping Center. A recent article in The Sun about the Country Club Togs expansion erroneously stated that the Village Cleaners had moved to the new Village Shopping Center. Funeral services were held Wednesday for Henry (Harry) L. Mortimer, 84, long-time resident of Orinda, who died Saturday at a Saranap rest home after a lingering illness. Rites were conducted at Hull and Sons' Little Chapel of the Flowers in Walnut Creek. Private caination followed. Survivors are a brother, Baldwin C. Mortimer of Berkeley, and two nephews, Richard Mortimer of Los Angeles and Alan Mortimer of Santa Cruz. Three brothers were Albert M. Mortimer with whom "Harry" Mortimer lived for many years and who died several years ago; W. J. Mortimer, well-known Berkeley real estate man who died about 14 years ago, and the late Tom Mortimer of Berkeley, also a real estate man. "Harry" Mortimer, a retired carpenter, lived at 43 Monte Vista Road, Orinda. He was born in England, and was one of nine brothers who came to the United States from England. He remained a bachelor. His brothers W. J. and Tom Mortimer were among those who started the first subdivision in Orinda—Orinda Villa Park—1914. Both "Harry" and Albert Mortimer were well-known and respected pioneer Orinda residents. "They stood for the finest ideals of community citizenship," Mrs. D. W. deLaveaga of Bien Venida, Orinda, recalled. The loss of "Harry" Mortimer is deeply felt by those who knew him. MR. MORTIMER came to this area over 40 years ago, when it was still farmland. He loved to tell stories of the early Orinda days. In 1954, when he was 81, Mr. Mortimer went around Orinda making collections for the annual "Fathers' March on Polio." The following year he collected money for the Red Cross. Mrs. deLaveaga recounted that "Harry" Mortimer came to Orinda from San Filipe, where he had been associated with Miller and Lux. THE HOUSE in which he lived was moved many years ago to San Pablo Dam Road (now called Orinda Highway) from the Bill Jordan site at the junction of Bear Creek Road and Wildcat Canyon Road. The house was moved to its present location in 1920 by Bates and Ballard.

Developer Asks Sewer Board Aid With Golf Club

A Haywood real estate developer appeared before a recent meeting of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District and revealed plans for development of a new golf club north of Sleepy Hollow, in the Bear Creek area in Orinda. Thomas Green asked the district directors to decide whether or not it can provide sewers for the proposed club which he would like to build on a 130-acre parcel currently owned by the East Bay Municipal Utility District. His purchase plan for the property will be held in abeyance until the sanitary district decides on the sewer matter. Previously, EBMUD had asked the district to consider expansion into their territory in order to make 358 acres of their land salable to private interests. No decision has yet been reached by CCCSD officials.

County Threatens Suit Against Sewer District

A recent decision by the directors of the Contra Costa Sanitary District to ignore a request by the County Public Works Department that the district relocate sewer lines in Orinda and Pleasant Hill has resulted in a possible law suit.

Assistant District Attorney Charles Hemmings declared on April 25 that his office intends to bring the suit against the CCCSD unless it agrees to relocate a sewer line in conjunction with the county's reconstruction of the Harriet Drive Bridge in Pleasant Hill.

Hemmings has sent a letter declaring his intent to file a suit to John A. Nejedly, counsel for the sanitary district.

It was at Nejedly's suggestion that the district directors refused the county's request originally.

The district counsel said that the sanitary district's view is that county policy in such cases creates a hardship on CCCSD taxpayers.

Nejedly explained that when the public works office decides to alter the route of a roadway the sanitary district is not consulted, and is expected to bear the cost of relocating sewers in accordance with county plans.

In addition to the Harriet Drive Bridge relocation, the county proposes to relocate a portion of the San Pablo Dam Road in Orinda.

"We have only two alternatives," Nejedly told the directors, "We can either require that the sewers in question be placed on private property (thus creating a hardship on the district taxpayers), or we can simply refuse to move them."

The directors voted not to move the sewer lines.

Their action put the county in the position of making a choice of legal action to force the sanitary district to comply with its request, or backing down.

The county has chosen the former course.

Cancer Volunteers Praised by Reinke For April Drive

Dr. A. R. Reinke, president of the Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society, this week praised the thousands of volunteers who worked for the success of the Society's month-long cancer campaign.

Dr. Reinke said that some 7000 volunteers in the county participated in the 1957 campaign to provide the most complete coverage in the nine years the organization has been seeking funds for the research, educational and public service programs of the American Cancer Society.

"One of the most gratifying things about the campaign this year," he said, "has been the high level of enthusiasm of the volunteers."

Early in the year, the Crestview Junior Women's Club and the Trinity Lutheran Church Club in Pleasant Hill packed 100,000 kits for use in the campaign.

The Senior Citizens of Lafayette, under the direction of Mrs. Alice Miller, took on the job of stamping and mailing letters to organizations.

Lafayette Girl Scout troops 287 and 141 under the direction of Mrs. Arlene Hill and Mrs. A. R. Welch and Mrs. E. J. Lynch's Brownie Troop 23 in Moraga assisted by counting and sorting material for the volunteers' kits.

Volunteers whom Dr. Reinke cited for assistance with various jobs at the Cancer Society headquarters on a year-round basis include Mesdames D. L. Goforth, J. W. Craugan Sr., and Mrs. Ben Turnan, Lafayette; George Champion and C. P. McVicker of the Contra Costa Camera Club, Orinda; Roy West, H. Parsons, John Sholes, L. T. Wilcox and A. Eliondo, Walnut Creek; Lillian Smith, George Cardinet, Richard Crandall, Ben Harris, William Clark and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cottrell, Concord, and Mrs. A. L. Podva, Danville.

"These steady workers are the backbone of a volunteer organization such as the American Cancer Society," Dr. Reinke said, "and they make it possible for us to recruit thousands of volunteers for our campaign."

The 1957 Cancer campaign was concluded in the Diablo Valley area on Tuesday. Volunteer tellers in the process of counting contributions and results should be available next week, Dr. Reinke said.

"We have high hopes that we will make our campaign goal of $50,000 for Contra Costa County," he said, and added, "We urge those residents who were not at home when the volunteer called to send their contributions direct to the Contra Costa Branch of the Cancer Society at 2363 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek."

Mrs. Burton Brace of Danville, Mrs. Oliver Hamlin of Lafayette and Mrs. Kent Weaver of Concord have been asked to make the formal presentation of Guide Dogs to their blind masters in ceremonies marking the successful completion of a four-week orientation course for nine man-dog teams.

The sum represents the sponsorship of over six man-dog teams, for each trained unit costs the philanthropic organization $1500.

Low Bid Error Does Not Halt Contract Award

Contracts totaling over $1 1/2 million dollars have been awarded to two contractors by the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

A contract for expansion of the CCCSD sewage treatment plant by two and one-half times was awarded to Williams and Burrows of Belmont, despite a company spokesman's statement that an error in their estimating would cost the firm $60,000.

Williams and Burrows low bid of $1,448,770 was $269,230 below the next lowest bid for the job. It was $510,230 below the highest of the four bids.

The contractor's representative asked for permission to correct the error in their bid, and the district board referred the matter to its counsel, John A. Nejedly, for possible adjustment.

The plant expansion project is financed by a long-range expansion program bond issue approved last year and will make provisions for an additional 50 per cent expansion at a later date.

The district board awarded a contract for installation of lines to service Local Improvement District No. 37, near Moraga Woodlands in Orinda, to the Halbach Construction Company of Hayward.

Halbach's bid for the work was $113,259.75.

Troop 237

Scouts of Orinda Troop 237 enjoyed a weekend in the High Sierras at Coldsprings Chalet, situated near Pinecrest and the Dodge Ridge Ski Slopes.

Sixteen scouts and five leaders participated in the weekend adventure. The scouts were John Ackerman, Bill Andersen, Roger Block, Alton Clough, John Dimpfel, Alan Hill, Keith Jacobsen, Mike LaPlant, Ronnie Parks, Bob Sheilling, Dave Stillson, Mike Smyth, Frank Thaxter, Dick Williams and Dick Haelele. The leaders were Bill Cooper, Scoutmaster, with Ham Stevenson, Bill Schilling, Stan Stillson and Lew LaPlant.

No mishap occurred, although all sixteen boys were on skis for both days; however, the troop committee, not to be outdone, did suffer a few strained muscles trying to keep up with the scouts.

The scouts were given skiing instruction before the trip as well as on the slopes. Consequently most of the scouts were well advanced beyond the snow-plow stage before the weekend was over.

At the recent court of honor, Scouts Mike Smyth and Frank Thaxter received their First Class Awards. Merit Badges were awarded to Keith Jacobsen, Alan Hill, Dick Williams and Ronnie Parks. The troop is now fifty per cent First Class as compared to the standard of forty per cent that scouting hopes troops will achieve.

Troop 237 holds their meetings on Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. Any boy nearing eleven or older who is interested in possibly joining scouting is welcome to visit the troop or to call Bill Cooper, DR 6-5379, for further information.

Pack 225

For an outstanding booth at the Scout Exposition, a proficiency blue ribbon was awarded to Pack 225 recently at Glorietta School.

Also, Victor Kingston, president of the Moraga Meadows Association, distributed baseball equipment for the Cubs' baseball league.

At the pack meeting, Mike Nie was received as a new Bobcat, and Mark Withers received his second year star. Achievement awards were given to the following boys:

The boys, Mike Kozak and Dick Brown, were accepted into the Webelos.

Troop 123

Members of Girl Scout Troop 123 have been working on the rock and mineral badge. In this connection, a trip was recently taken to the University of California, where the girls went through Bacon Hall, the School of Mines and the Campanile.

Recently a rock hunt, cookout and organized games were enjoyed at Mt. Diablo.

The girls are working with Robert Nichols, who is assisted by the mothers and fathers of the girls in the troop.

Flag Ceremony

During National Girl Scout Week flag ceremonies were conducted at Sleepy Hollow, Orinda and Pine Grove Schools.

Girls of Troop 83, under the leadership of Mrs. Ernest Kahl and Mrs. Paul Slattery, conducted the ceremony at Sleepy Hollow School.

The ceremony was put on at Orinda School by Troop 214, with Mrs. Kenneth Renwick and Mrs. R. W. Leland as leaders.

Troop 198, under the leadership of Mrs. John Ryan, conducted the ceremony at Pine Grove School.

Song Fest

A Girl Scout Song Fest was held at Orinda Grammar School recently. The event was a joint meeting for Girl Scouts and parents from Sleepy Hollow, Orinda and Pine Grove Schools.

The program also included a flag ceremony conducted by members of Troop 128, under the leadership of Mrs. M. W. Loveland, and a pep talk on advanced scouting by Miss Virginia Law.

Mrs. W. E. Smith led the singing.

Stamp Club

Boy and girl members of scout troops in the Orinda area interested in collecting stamps will be welcomed at the Saturday morning meetings of the Orinda Scouts Stamp Club.

Bradshaw Harrison, adult leader, will be glad to welcome stamp collectors at the Boy Scout Hut, Orinda Park Pool, at meetings from 10 a.m. to noon every Saturday.

Squirrels can locate buried nuts by scent through more than a foot of snow.

Outdoor Stage Plan Gets Study

Informal request by the Orinda Art Center for permission to build a 30 by 40-foot platform on Orinda Community Center land, in a hollow behind Orinda School, was discussed by the Orinda Association board April 22 and was turned over to the association's planning committee.

President Gene Estes asked Bob Walpole, chairman of the association property committee, to confer on the matter with the planning committee, which is headed by Richard Bartle.

Bartle said he expects the next session of the planning committee to be early in May.

ESTES EXPLAINED that the subject was still merely in the "talking stage."

He said the Orinda Art Center was considering the possible desirability of using such a platform for outdoor drama productions, with the natural land slopes serving as seating room for audiences.

The Orinda Community Center land is owned by the Orinda Association.

ALSO AT THEIR meeting in the Orinda School auditorium, the association directors heard Clair MacLeod, chairman of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, discuss the status and objectives of the two-county transit district.

MacLeod was introduced by Bob Guichard, a director of the Lafayette Improvement Association.

Guichard explained later that he arranged for MacLeod's appearance because he believes "there is a need for the people to be brought up to date on the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, to realize that we are in a transit district and to participate in district activities and attend meetings of the district board."

Accompanying MacLeod were two other directors, Robert K. Barber and J. H. Arnold, and the acting attorney for the district, Robert Nisbet.

"WE'RE HOPING to develop a system which can later be absorbed into and developed by the big Bay Area transit district, when that comes into being," MacLeod said.

MacLeod stated that it is his personal belief that "the first job our two-county district should do is to devote attention to Central Contra Costa County."

Orindans Get In on Filming Of 'Pal Joey'

The filming of "Pal Joey" has added a good deal of activity to two Orinda households this month —while mothers and children desert the hearth to appear, right along with the big names of Hollywood.

Nita Courant of La Espiral and her daughter Carol, 11, have both been recruited for scenes in the picture, as have Jackie Lee of Alta Vista and her son Jack, 18.

Nita, Jackie and Jack were all hard at work before the cameras last week in Berkeley as they took their places in the train onto which Frank Sinatra was being tossed. Carol's big scenes will come later in San Francisco, where as a yacht owner's daughter she will be pictured with a group at the Yacht Harbor.

This will be Carol Courant's movie debut, but she is no novice before the camera. For several years she has appeared as a fashion model, and for the past two years has studied dramatics in San Francisco. She is a sixth-grader at Orinda School.

For Mary Dorr, who has been recovering an illness . . . The happy ladies hurrying home around 3, anticipating the company's gift of NYLONS which each will receive in the mails in six weeks or so!

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

A little grass shack on Kamenodon Miguela

THE WEATHERMAN OBLIGED w/semi-tropical weather to match the mood of the Hawaiian-themed "Okole Mulna" party last Sunday at the John Gillivan home on Camino Don Miguel.

And if John and Kitty's cars weren't buzzing as they basked on the beach at Waikiki, it was ONLY because not so much as a fleet-breeze breeze traveled Pacific-ward. Certainly the popular pair were mentioned in dozens of conversation by the crowd of almost 200 who enjoyed the hospitality of their spacious Spanish-type home at the 4-7 PM party given by the Santa Maria Women's Club.

The couple, currently celebrating their 20th anniversary, generously offered their house for the affair, and then flew off for a holiday in the Islands sans their six youngsters, who can certainly be commended for THEIR help in making the party such a success.

SHARING GREETING HONORS w/Chrmn. Pat Lemire was Kitty's sister, Mary Gallagher, who has been visiting here from Cincinnati . . . She and the Gillivan brood going on to the family Buffet at the Country Club early evening.

A LITTLE GRASS SHACK adorned the entry, the artful contribution of Shirley Fager, who, w/Del, came w/the Bill Fizets. . . Admiring the Bird of Paradise blooms that graced the Baby Grand in the living room were the LeMartin Spitters, who later attended a dinner gathering at the A. C. Byrnes' abode . . . Among the hostesses, identified by fresh orchid leis flown in for the occasion, were Mrs. George Courtney, mother of TV's Del Courtney; Florence Mansonen, Betty Regan, Settina Andersen, Alice Warren.

OUT ON THE GLASSED LANAI porch overlooking the golf greens, a still-life study of papaya, pineapple and tropical fruits arranged to perfection on a table covered w/fish net. Here, the Ernest Abbes, the junior John Reilly . . . The Arnold Schfallas making dinner plans w/the George Wheelers.

DUE TO THE WARMTH OF THE DAY, bare shoulders and brand new tans (as well as a few burns!) were much in evidence. . . Hostess Chrmn. Margaret Wiegand in a stunning DIOR model of emerald green peau de soie collared w/the lei of lavender flowers . . . Thelma Harney greeted friends wearing a Kelly green bustle-backed Rembrandt gown . . . The Walter Fribergs were there, SHE adding to the glamour in grey organza w/lace trim . . . The Joseph Ortlands glimpsed, her DACHE flowered hat outstanding . . . Barbara Gallagher, Rita Farris passing trays of tasty cheese puffs.

IN THE OAK-STUDDED GARDEN . . . the Frank Schnuggs, Eugene Garbarinos . . . the Paul Staffords being prodded for details of their recent whirl of the world. . . Harold Libbey, Bill McCann taking a breather from their dining room duties . . . Zach Montgomery w/congrats for Emily Leonard, who won the portable TV . . . Kenny Schwartz precariously balancing several glasses in one hand.

More parties with atmosphere!

And just the night before, BACCHUS beamed down on a similar gathering in a mood L'ITALIENNE when a score of suburbanites converged at the WC Elks Club to sample choice Napa neotars at the Wine Tasting Benefit hosted by the Orinda Women's Club.

FROM HAWAIIAN, to ITALIAN, to GAY PARISIAN, we go—for WHAT is a party without atmosphere? So mid-week, Miramonte's auditorium was transformed, Voila! into a veritable bit of Paree. LES FEMMES, 600 strong, sallied forth on this summery day to the Parents Club "April in Paris" dessert-bridge. And judging from the kudos that Dana Cook was collecting for the decor of sidewalk cafes, awninged Boutiques, poodles & posters, the overall effect was, C'est Magnifique!

Among those hosting pre-party luncheons were Mildred Pridmore, Millie Bartlett, Marge Hamlin, Phyllis Adams MORE who beckoned friends early to hot biscuits and tossed greens were Phyllis Teller, Dinnie Thompson, Helen Brown and Dorothy Bargesons, the LATTER, incidentally, to celebrate her 29th wedding anniversary on the trip we tell you about a few paragraphs down.

A BIT OF BON JOUR in her greeting, Chrmn. Thelma Fraser wearing crisp black and white checks, Jeannette Wright in a smart aqua silk shirtwaist taking over the mike for ticket numbers . . . and lucky Jane Courtwright claiming the coveted "MONEY TREE" from June Merriam, Elaine Moore who helped dole out the prizes.

NAUTICALLY NICE, pres. Millie Walling in a white sailor dress . . . Marge Klopfer, Ruth Howe, Inez Guarneri some of the smiling hostesses, Louise Quinn checking HER tables. Bernese Lewis, wife of the school's principal, w/out of town guests. And furious bridge players to the VERY END, a foursome of Janet Shirey, Lil Ayres, Faye Hopkins, Eleanor Reed.

The many who bought tickets from Nadine Hudson and wondered where SHE was . . . Just Bicycling in BERMUDA w/her husband, that's WHERE!

NO LATE SATURDAY SNOOZING HERE! For tomorrow, 4-7, is Sleepy Hollow Recreation Association's OPEN HOUSE, Members & Guests bid to preview the finished product of the pool and surrounding area, and the Godfrey Greggs to chairman the afternoon's festivities! Just a reminder!

BACK TO SCHOOL they went last week and one kindergarten-er's mother, noticing a rip in the rear of her young man's pants as he sat eating lunch, decided that rather than change him, from the shoes up, she'd patch him up right there at the table while he concentrated on his carrots and custard.

Little Man was so occupied w/eating he never even noticed. That is, NOT until he returned home from school that afternoon to give his mother the WORD. Her stitch in time had fastened the outer to the unders and young man wanted NO MORE of THAT! Unfair to the derriere!

'Pal Joey' cast includes Orinda people

Back to school, too last week, went HARVEY. Not the invisible rabbit friend of Frank Fy's. But Harvey, the handsome pet chinchilla of Mrs. Margaret Coffey's second-grade class at Orinda School who went home with teacher for some peace and quiet, too!

TRAVEL TALK . . . Everett and Dorothy Bargesons of Camino Sobrante left Wednesday on a combined business & pleasure trip by air that will take them first to Boca Raton, Fla., later through Mexico.

The John Van Dynes of Camino Del Diablo have been visiting in Missouri . . . Margaret Fontaine, 10-year old daughter of the Raymond Fontaines of El Toyonal, who is having a Grand Tour of the East with her grandmother, Mrs. Yvonne Fontaine, attended Easter services at St. Patrick's Cathedral in Manhattan.

ON LOCATION for "Pal Joey" scenes w/Sinatra, shot recently at the Berkeley SP station, were Jackie Lee of upper El Toyonal, together w/her son Jack Jr., an Acalanes student who works at the local Mobilgas station and has done "extra" work since he was a young child. For the Lees, mother and son, this is a LARK. Even on such a dry day as this was. Script called for precipitation, so entire cast got solidly saturated by fire hoses.

THE "PAJAMA GAME" was played by some 170 women April 22 who turned out at the Orinda Community Church for the Consumer's Survey party by the E-Z Cotton Mills, the church funds benefiting from the Mills for the number of women who checked their choices of a variety of infants' wear, mainly pajamas. Betty Bell, chairman, BUSY w/the large turnout, as were her assistants Marian Long, Vangy Dickinson.

WITH A PENCIL & A PAD, they figured it out . . . Jean Watkins, Mary Margerin, Dorothy Anderson taking the Toddler's Sets VERY seriously . . . Pondering a choice, Jane Brobeck, Ann Bailey, Fanny Dozier . . . Dorothy Adie introducing her brother, Wilson Haight, of the company's NY office . . . Cappy Champion, pencil poised mid-air, stopping to chat w/friends . . . Millie Winfree introducing the chairman's mother-in-law, Mrs. William West from Pleasant Hill.

A COFFEE BREAK on the sunny patio for Fay Smith, Evelyn Roberts, June Spatz, who came w/Frieda Smith . . . Elsie Harmon (she entertained a large group for lunch earlier), wearing a summery cotton . . . Mary Monosmith smiling from behind the coffee pot . . . Fran Dibble w/a large group in tow . . . A host of HELLOS for Mary Dorr, who has been recovering an illness . . . The happy ladies hurrying home around 3, anticipating the company's gift of NYLONS which each will receive in the mails in six weeks or so!

CADETS from this area and their mothers are keenly interested in the benefit house and garden tour that was staged in San Rafael recently to aid the San Rafael Military Academy. The event was conducted by the Mothers' Club of the academy. Left to right are four Orindans who were eager that the tour be successful—Cadet Capt. Bruce Smith; his mother, Mrs. Uriel B. ### Pack 232

Cub Scout Pack 232 held its annual Father-Son Dinner at the Orinda School on Friday evening, April 26.

Den 3 opened the festivities with the flag ceremony, then the fathers were introduced by their proud Cubs.

High tribute was paid to outgoing Cubmaster Walt Shepherd, and incoming Barclay Simpson.

The outstanding baseball players of Pack 232 were recognized, and future plans were outlined by the athletic directors, Del Thompson and Bob Singer.

Program director Bill Thomas gave a report on the field trip made to the Ford Assembly Plant recently, and told plans for a Pack visit to the Alameda Naval Air Base tomorrow. An amateur night is scheduled for the last pack meeting of the year, May 17.

Den 1 entertained with a play entitled, "No Order in the Court." The cast included Billy Holmes, Tommy Singer, Bruce Silver, Ken Thomas, Mike Shepherd, John Simpson and Mike Cullen, and the play was directed by Den Mother Marcia Singer.

The hostesses were Lois Thompson, Jean Bottjer, Joan Simpson and Emmarie Holmes.

Awards went to Tom Singer, Denner stripe and gold on wolf; Ken Thomas, assistant Denner; Jan Bottjer, Wolf; and the troop recently mailed a cartoon of children's wool clothing, with some candy and stuffed animal toys ticked inside, to a German orphanage directed by Miss Helene Koch, sister of Bill Koch, marshal of the Orinda Fire Department. The troop received a very nice note of thanks and also a couple of pictures of some of the children.

Mrs. Ralph Hall is the troop leader and Mrs. Robert Brown is co-leader.

Post 300

Cullen and Peter Veitch, Orinda Explorer Post 300 made a trip to Forest Hills in the Sierras recently.

Purpose of the trip was tree-planting. Every year in November the boys go into the same area and cut Christmas trees which they sell at the Crossroads near the Associated service station.

It was an exciting trip, due to a storm the group did not anticipate.

Stephen DeMaria will attend the Jamboree in England this summer, and Mortimer Smith and Charles Pfeiffer will attend the Jamboree at Valley Forge.

Fast Upper Grade Growth Continues Says Wilson

Contra Costa County's upper grades are growing twice as fast as the elementary grades, according to a report issued by county superintendent of education, B. O. Wilson.

Wilson said the semi-annual report of enrollment as of March 29, shows the junior high and high schools have increased by 2321 students, or 8.9 per cent over last year's figure, while the elementary increase of 2798 represents only a 4.8 increase.

HIGH SCHOOL enrollment is up from 25,970 to 28,291; elementary from 53,142 to 60,940; and the total, including Contra Costa Junior College, from 86,298 to 91,398, or 5.9 per cent, in contrast to annual rates of about 12 per cent experienced earlier in the decade.

Wilson said that a grade-by-grade comparison of enrollment in 1950 with the present shows the upper grades to be expanding much more rapidly than lower. This year's first grade is 24 per cent larger than the 1950 first grade, eighth and ninth grades are 78 per cent larger, 10th and 11th grades 68 per cent larger and the 12th grade, 76 per cent larger.

BETWEEN MARCH 1956 and March of this year the greatest growth was made by Moraga, 43 per cent; Sheldon, 33 per cent; Selby, 23 per cent; Pinole-Hercules Union, Danville Union and Alameda Union High School, 21 per cent each; and San Ramon Valley Union High School, 19 per cent.

More than 800 high school honor students from central California will attend the California Scholarship Federation's annual convention to be held at Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek, tomorrow.

Las Lomas was picked as host school at the 1956 CSF conference held last spring at Asilomar in Monterey County. Assisting Las Lomas in arrangements for the 1957 convention Saturday are chapters from Hayward and Serrano high schools.

Keynote address will be delivered by Willie Osburn, prominent Bay Area and northern California civic leader.

He has served as president of the California Safety Association, the Crippled Children's Society of Alameda County and the Oakland Boys Club.

His topic will be "A Tourist's Look Behind the Iron Curtain" based upon his recent tour of Russia and the satellite countries.

The 9 a.m. program will include a panel discussion of the topic "The Nine Basic Needs of Man." Program entertainment will be provided by students from Miramonte, Mt. Diablo and Las Lomas.

Planning committee chairmen and committee from Las Lomas include: Annette Ramelli, general chairman; Sharon Stanon, reception; Madeline Deklotz, correspondence; Judy Knowlton, Carol Zimmerman, programs.

Bob and Dick Noble, publicity; Carol Johnson, luncheon; Parker Maddux, entertainment; Nancy Weant, placards; Shelley Jones, housing; Betty Casady, treasurer; Carol Marliave, awards.

Faculty advisors are Miss Dorothy Manes and Robert Kirkpatrick.

Because 60 student guests are traveling a considerable distance to attend the convention, they will be housed as overnight guests in the homes of the local honor students in the Walnut Creek area.

Eight Students Are Recipients Of Scholarships

Eight Contra Costa County high school students are among the 680 in California who are winners of 1957-58 scholarships worth up to $600 each, awarded by the State Scholarship Commission on a basis of qualifying examinations and financial need.

According to Mrs. Patricia Lühr of Walnut Creek and Drummond J. McCunn, superintendent of the Contra Costa Junior College District, both of whom are on the commission, there may be other local winners among the 331 alternates named at the same time, or among 26 so-called "vacant" scholarships.

The coveted awards resulted from the failure of 14 Assembly and 12 Senatorial districts to provide eligible applicants. A bill now before the Legislature, AB52, would permit these to become awards-at-large, if passed.

While naming the 680 new awards, the commission also announced the names of 570 others whose 1956-57 scholarships were renewed.

All the scholarships are the result of legislation passed in 1955, and originally proposed by Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette. He congratulated local winners today.

They are Nancy Marie Bergman of San Ramon Valley Union High School; Patricia Margaret Nimmo, 710 Los Palos Drive, Lafayette, Alacalanes High School; Jeffrey Kay Smith, 36 Las Vegas Road, Orinda, Alacalanes High School; Millianne Peirano of Pittsburg High School; Anne Carol Bronzi, 219 Patrick Drive, Pleasant Hill, of Pleasant Hill High School, and three Las Lomas High School students including Madeline Louise Deklotz, 1863 Newell Avenue; Kenneth David Stevens, 1547 Riviera Avenue and Nancy Elizabeth Weant, 457 Bridge Road, all of Walnut Creek.

Francis Dunn Jr., chairman of the board for the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, announced today that Benjamin Linsky, control officer for the district, has just been appointed to the newly created 12-member National Advisory Council on Community Air Pollution by the Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service.

Dunn stated, "Mr. Linsky's appointment is a high honor to him and to the district. We are pleased to be able to be of service to the United States in this important work."

This committee was established under Public Law 159, which authorized the Federal government to work on air pollution.

"Girl Scouts in Action," the mass exhibit and demonstration show held Saturday, April 27, at Alacalanes High School attracted more than 1000 interested spectators.

Over 80 Girl Scout troops took part in the event, exhibiting hand crafts such as sewing, pottery, ceramics.

Service projects were illustrated such as civil defense and nurses' aid work.

Camping skills were demonstrated; and in the field of arts, dancing, tumbling, drill work, plays and skits were presented.

The opening ceremony was spectacular with the theme, "Scouting is a magic thread which links the youth of the world together."

The flag ceremony presented the flags of 35 countries where Girl Guides and Scouts are active. Girl Scouts and Brownies representing each country gave a short history of Scouting in the country they represented and held the magic thread which symbolically went around the world.

Mrs. J. Orr Kyle, president of the Diablo Valley Girl Scout Council, gave a short talk in which she said that "a Girl Scout learns—works at what she had learned and then she shares it with everyone else."

Mrs. Kyle and Mrs. W. W. Wiggins, chairman of the Committee for Girl Scouts in Action, presented ribbons to those troops participating in the poster contest.

Taxpayers Have Right to Ask Clean Government

Do we still live in a "cow county?" Obviously we do not, and we have examples of tremendous growth and improvements on every side to prove the case.

But many of our county offices are still being run just as they were 40 years ago when you could shoot off a gun in most of Contra Costa County and probably not hit anything.

And what is worse, in many cases the inefficient management of these offices is "protected" and investigations are "whitewashed" to the extent that we continue to have some horrible examples of mismanagement and inefficiency in the very agencies where we need top management and efficiency.

Remember, it is our dollars which provide the county government, and every bit of inefficiency is paid for out of our pockets. And there is no need to comment again on the size of the tax bills.

On the other hand, there are many excellent county officials and able departments and department heads. There are hundreds of loyal employees who are doing a good job.

In fact, some of our departments, such as the Public Works Department and County Health Department, have been numbered as among the best in California.

But what about the others — the offices which are operating at considerably less than maximum efficiency?

Consider the case of the present turmoil surrounding the Recorder's Office, where even the Grand Jury auditor is at a loss to straighten the matter out because of a lack of adequate records.

How can we reconcile the "missing" funds and the "kick-back" payments among office personnel with any kind of decent government?

It is recognized that the Grand Jury has started an investigation, but unfortunately the Grand Jury's term of office expires on or about June 1.

We can only wonder if this investigation will get "lost" just as other investigations have in the past. Will we have another "whitewash" job on our hands?

Obviously there is more behind this story than the investigation has yet brought out, and it is certainly to be hoped that the "pressure" will remain on until the whole mess is cleaned up.

The Sun has carried editorials and news stories dealing with "unhealthy" situations in our county government for years, and it only takes a brief look at some of the items which have appeared during the last six months to bring home the enormity of the problem.

Several months ago we read of the resignation of the manager of Buchanan Field.

This resignation came at the start of an inquiry by The Sun into complaints of mismanagement at the county's airport, Buchanan Field. Other departments in the county, and county employees were also attempting to straighten the matter out.

But before any investigation into the matter could be accomplished — before any explanation of how or why such a situation could come about — the manager "resigned" and the matter was "forgotten."

Another example of fumbling in county administration is even now occurring with the attempt to establish an ordinance which would give all funeral homes in the county a piece of the lucrative deputy coroner's trade.

District Attorney Francis Collins stated that he could draw up an ordinance that would be binding in spite of objections, but he delayed again last week.

Under the present system, deputy coroner duties are "parceled out" by Coroner L. H. Fraser to funeral homes which he wishes to appoint, instead of providing a rotating basis or some other system whereby all could share alike.

And just a few weeks ago we read of the charges of Fred Anthon of "irregularities" in the operations of the Contra Costa Housing Authority.

Anthon sent a copy of his charges to the Grand Jury, but so far, the Board of Supervisors has taken no action — nor even recognized the fact that there may be a serious problem.

Of course, the Grand Jury is handicapped in that it must depend on the District Attorney's Office for advice and investigative help, and the District Attorney's Office has been notoriously inefficient in such matters for years.

The power to rectify these situations lies in the hands of the Board of Supervisors, and to some extent, in the hands of the Grand Jury.

The present Grand Jury has evidently gotten off to a good start, but their tenure of office is so limited that we may again find ourselves in the old situation — an investigation started, but finally dropped — another "whitewash" job.

We have every right to expect our supervisors to act in these matters, because they have the final say as to how our county government is managed.

And it is up to us, as citizens and residents, to see that our representatives carry out our wishes, and certainly there is a universal wish for efficiency and honesty in county government.

What They Say...

What Is There to Do?

Sheriff's deputies recently were called to a Lafayette restaurant because some teenagers were "raising a ruckus." The officers managed to forestall any trouble by talking to the youngsters instead of down to them.

The officers, one of whom has teenage children of his own, asked the youngsters why they had congregated and were so noisome.

Well, it seems present day teenagers are afflicted with the same disease which previous generations have found troublesome.

For want of a good Latin education, we'll just call it "What-is-there-for-us-to-do-itis!" Some years ago James T. Farrell wrote a three volume novel whose main theme was "What'll we do?" The question plagued the hero from his sub-teens until his death at the age of 29.

A recent award winning movie "Marty," also investigated the boredom which has settled over some of our present adults.

So the problem is obviously not limited to teenagers. But, because of the recent spotlight of sensationalism which has been thrown on their age group, teenagers suffer perhaps out of proportion to their guilt.

If adults cannot find enough activities to keep them trouble-free, it is hardly any wonder that youngsters should have the same problem.

We asked residents, adults, whether they thought there were enough organized activities for teenagers in the area. They answered in brief as follows:

PAUL J. ARENSON, 52 Dolores Way, Orinda: "I don't know. I don't have any teenagers."

MRS. HARRY M. BOURLAND, 1531 Houston Road, Lafayette: "I definitely do not. We need more supervised playgrounds in this area."

MRS. ROBERT W. COOPER, 95 La Cresta Road, Orinda: "I have no children of my own, but from what I've heard from my neighbors, they could use more voluntary adult help with teenagers."

MRS. WILBUR G. LARSON, 3346 Helen Lane, Lafayette: "Oh, no! I'm definite on that. There doesn't seem to be any organized activities outside of some church groups which take care of only a few teenagers."

MISS MARGARET RUMINSKI, 1537 Shuey Avenue, Walnut Creek: "I don't believe there are enough organized activities. I'm a teenager with two sisters, and I think we need something like a swimming pool or ice skating rink in town so we're not dependent upon our friends or parents taking us somewhere."

MRS. PAUL GORDET, 719 Cumberland

Drive, Pleasant Hill: "I'm not well acquainted with the activities they have here for teenagers, since I don't have any teenagers myself. I think it's wonderful to have things for teenagers to do, though."

MRS. ORVILLE CRANDALL, 1327 Homestead Avenue, Walnut Creek: "I am not sure just how many activities there are, but I'm for all for having more."

MRS. FRED WISSHACK, 1024 Hook Avenue, Pleasant Hill: "No, I do not. I think there should be lots more. I like ice skating because it keeps teenagers indoors."

MRS. STANLEY BROWN, 1068 Apple Drive, Concord: "I guess not. I don't know too much about the teenager situation but I guess they should have more places where they can have dances and social affairs."

JOHN HENNESSY, 2649 Richard Avenue, Concord: "I have two teenage daughter and their activities keep them quite busy. But a lot of their activities, they make themselves. As far as organized activities go, I don't think there are enough in this area."

CLYDE BRUCE, 88 Eniwetok Village, Concord: "I think that there are enough organized activities for teenagers."

MRS. HOWARD RUSSELL, 3630 Chestnut Street, Concord: "For the youngsters who participate in organized activities, it probably seems that there are not enough. Teenagers can do a lot of things."

MRS. JAMES LAWSON, 1846 Parkside, Concord: "If teenagers will go into the activities that are available, they will find plenty to do and leaders ready to do the work. The Explorer Scouts, for instance, which I recently inquired into, have a splendid summer program."

ROBERT BAUMHOEFNER, 1014 Stanford, Concord: "I don't really know what we have available for teenagers, as we don't have any children of that age as yet."

MRS. JAMES MARCHIANO, 725 Wilshire Place, Concord: "I think we'll all agree that there is certainly room for improvement. I know the organization that we do have try very hard. Maybe things would be better, though, if we have more activities for teenagers to get into."

MISS LOIS RUFFIN, 4304 Cowell Road, Concord: "I'm a teenager, and I believe there should be more organized activities, particularly on weekends and during the summer. A summer swimming program where you could get in free for the purchase of a single season ticket or another program like that would be a good idea."

The Board of Directors of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association today appealed to the electorate to write their State Legislators in an effort to prevent the "tremendous liberalization in social welfare bills now being considered in the State Legislature."

Of the 7200 bills which have been introduced, approximately 250 of these bills pertain to public welfare aid programs and almost 100 per cent of the State Senate and Assembly welfare bills liberalize the already liberal social welfare bills now being considered in the State Legislature.

Some of the bills, if enacted, will do the following:

1. Repeat or weaken relative responsibility provisions.

2. Raise maximum monthly Old Age Security payments from $89 to $100.

3. Eliminate certain county resident requirement regulations for Old Age Security or Blind Aid eligibility.

4. Create new separate aid program for the permanently and totally disabled.

5. Exempt from personal property value consideration, radios and televisions.

6. Increase amount of payments to boarding homes for the care of needy children.

7. Prohibit counties from applying a lien on the property of an individual receiving county hospital care.

8. Provide expanded program of medical services and payments to welfare recipients.

9. Raise limitations on assessed valuation of property and other assets which may be held by recipients.

any desired book not on the shelf may be requested by any individual.

THE BOOKMOBILE is staffed by Mrs. Rozetta T. Cardwell as branch librarian, and by William Channel and Donald Foster as alternating driver-clerks. It draws upon the county library's total book collection of 200,000 volumes kept in rotation among the branches and stations.

As in the stationary libraries, Mrs. Hellum said,

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

In reply to Mrs. Jeffrey's criticism of an objectively presented editorial on April 19—

The mass of objective scientific data in favor of fluoridation cannot be dismissed with a statement of "one-sided."

A study of the nature of freedom and our constitutional "rights" cannot result in an interpretation that a minority opinion should have the power to prevail over the welfare of our children, and of our community.

The tremendous, enlightened progress of public health in the past 50 years has prevailed in spite of subjective statements against objectively and scientifically derived conclusions.

Dear Editor:

My hat is off to the city of Antioch! The new "dog law" is one of the best to date. If owners of animals are made liable for damages, such damage to property will cease. . . . We are waiting for the day when our town wakes up.

Name Withheld by Request

Dear Editor:

The dog is a menace. I have seriously considered building a six foot fence around my property in order to protect my investment. We are in need of a law which would give us equal rights to control the situation without the necessity of filing a complaint with our police department, thereby creating unpleasant relations with our neighbors.

CONFINE PETS

Dear Editor:

In the struggle to maintain lawn and shrubs in a totally undeveloped community, every one of us should respect the efforts of our neighbors and confine our pets to our own property boundaries.

Taxes are prohibitive, but the $5 fee that it takes to license a dog gives him more trespassing rights than a human being would be allowed. If our lots are not large enough for exercise, then the property is too small for an animal. If a "leash law" would help I would heartily endorse one, but too often it is abused, by owners who walk their dogs at night, making sure that the lawn and bushes to be abused are not their own.

If each of us would accept this problem as our own personal responsibility, much could be done to relieve the situation. We cannot assume the attitude that simply because one person on the street lets his dog destroy other people's possessions, that ours has an equal right to do just as much damage because it wears the tag around its neck.

So let's all join in a campaign to cooperate on a mutual basis, respecting the individual rights of our neighbors, and creating a more beautiful Concord for everyone to enjoy.

MORE ON DOGS

Dear Editor:

I am writing to add my vote of agreement with "Disgusted Property Owner" whose letter you printed April 19.

First of all, please let me assure you that I am not a dog-hater, and have owned three or four dogs in my relatively short life, and love animals in general.

HOWEVER, since we have purchased a home in Lafayette — one of the best — and a big investment for us — we have discovered how much damage the dogs of the neighborhood can do. At first, we tried to grin and bear it, but after several sessions of reseeding patches of lawn, replacing plants damaged beyond repair, etc., we began to realize that these uncontrolled dogs are actually taking hard-earned money out of our pocket!

So finally in desperation we had to invest $80 plus two days labor in building a low fence around our property and find that this has discouraged the dogs almost completely. Although this has relieved the situation, this does not alter the fact that we had to take steps to PROTECT our property from our own dogs who do not have the consideration to properly control them.

I DON'T ASK that people be prevented from owning dogs, as I think a pet can be a valuable addition to any family. I ask only that people be required to keep their dogs under restraint, as did Disgusted Property Owner.

Naturally, one does not want to be constantly feuding with the neighbors, and the fact that we kept our mouths shut and quietly built our fence is the reason our neighborhood relations have not suffered. . . . and yet WE are the ones who suffered because of the neighbors' neglect of their pets! I would be greatly interested in knowing just how many people in our area would favor an ordinance of this type. I ask that if you print my letter, you do not use my name, for obvious reasons.

Are We All Passing the Buck on Civil Defense?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Civil defense is a challenge. It's difficult to get families, schools, towns, counties, state or the federal government truly interested. And yet it can mean life or death for the individual or nation. This column and The Sun has put the spotlight on it from time to time.

Apparently on April 19, I must have embarrassed Nan Wallace (Mrs. Lawrence Wallace) when I praised her for what she has done. My sole excuse is that Nan has educated me about Civil Defense and I look to her when I think C. D. The following letter is from Nan and throws new light on the problem.

"I was pleased, surprised and disturbed by your column, 'Under the Sun,' April 19 on Civil Defense: Pleased by the space you gave Dr. Lindsay's warning regarding necessary changes in school design to protect our children from flying glass, blast, heat and fallout; surprised by your personal comments, and disturbed because some of your comments need clarification.

A good man at the helm

"First, let me remind you and your readers how fortunate we are to have William Ward Jr. as director of the Contra Costa County Office of Civil Defense and Disaster. Mr. Ward and his capable staff have accomplished wonders since this department was set up less than two years ago at the request of Sheriff Harry Brown. We have come a long way since 'Civilian Defense Bulletin No. 1' dated January 5, 1951 was sent from the County Superintendent of Schools office to each school requesting the information thereon be sent to the home of each pupil.

"Herman, doesn't this bring up an interesting and important point? It has taken us a long, long time to begin to accept this concept of preparedness, but it doesn't mean there hasn't been information and guidance available for years for those who were interested. (Your source just happened to be Nan Wallace)

The first "Duck and Cover" instructions for children were printed by the Federal Government in 1951. The first "Civil Defense in Schools," a technical manual covering all phases of planning, is dated April, 1952 and includes the importance of shelter areas and protection from possible flying glass. These needs have been stressed in each Federal and State Manual since.

Conditions constantly change

"As I have gone through my files this morning and looked through these early publications, another extremely important point is emphasized. For years there have been school administrators and families alike whose excuse for a 'do nothing attitude' and lack of preparedness has been based on the changes in civil defense planning. 'When they know what they want we will do something about it.'"

But, Herman, these Federal guides were adequate and complete and unchanging Civil Defense plans.

To think today's plans are complete, is certainly false security, and now that some of our schools and some of our families are working towards an "adequate only for today and they must remember it is adequate only for today and they must be always alert to needed changes.

Two big steps taken

We've come a long way in other respects, too. You speak of our first Bell and Light Air Raid warning system at the Clayton Valley School. Today there are 51 in county schools and more will come.

Perhaps the two greatest steps forward for the schools in our county under Mr. Ward's able leadership has been the formation of the "School Administrators Civil Defense Planning Committee" in which each school district is represented and which meets each month. Through this group, more uniform C.D. policies have been established in our county and separate districts, and civil defense has started to take its rightful place in school planning and administration.

"The other step has been the formation of the "Action Program" which was developed through the cooperation of Mr. Ward and the Mt. Diablo Council PTA and its Civil Defense committee composed of parents, school principals, nurse, trustees, and administrators.

"This program, developed for the use of the C.D. chairman in each school, outlines in detail the practical needs in our schools and how parents can aid the administrators in putting their established policies into operation. We have had many parents through the years who are willing to work, but who didn't know what should be done or how to go about doing it.

Another change in the offing

"You speak of the Civil Defense Sub-Council community organizations. Another one of those 'changes' is in the making. We were the only County in the United States with a 'Sub Council' organization which had been developed years ago, and because of the extreme importance in uniform plans, our community plans are being changed to the Federal plan. Then, a Contra Costa County Civil Defense worker could be equally helpful in any organization in the nation.

"Civil defense is thoroughly American in concept, Herman, and its principles have meant survival for our Nation from its beginning. disaster, disaster from the sky, as the recent Pacoima School disaster where the large number of teachers with 1st aid training were responsible for saving so many lives—to say nothing of the It's simply a matter of knowing how to meet your own, your families and your need at time of emergency, whether it be Indians, as in the past, fire in your home, floods, earthquake, tornado, industrial ever present war threat with A and H bombs to face.

Making it a MUST

"Just this week, as the problem was discussed at a meeting, there were those who suggested we ask the State Department of Education to require their recommended changes in school construction. Fortunately, there was a school trustee member in the group all too aware of the powers already handed to the state instead of working them out on a local level. We must act and be willing to work and assume responsibility on the local level!

"Those of us fortunate enough to attend the Federal Civil Defense Administrator's Western Teacher's Training School at St. Mary's College back in 1951, 1952 and 1953, not only learned civil defense as of that time, and the need to keep up on civil defense, and its constant changes, but we were charged and obligated to work on a local level.

"But, Herman, it is silly for you to say 'Nan Wallace has stressed, etc.' just because you and I discuss the problem. The Federal Government, the State Office of Civil Defense, the State Department of Education, Mr. Ward, other school civil defense chairmen and many parents all state and feel the same need.

Many people now interested

"We have come a long way in one other aspect, Herman. Where in the past there were just a few in Contra Costa County who felt the need of Civil Defense planning, enough to do something about it, today the situation is entirely different.

"Walnut Creek Schools had never even had a air raid 'Duck and Cover' drill when June (Mrs. F.) Aiman became interested in the problem three years ago, and accepted the Mt. Diablo PTA Council Civil Defense Chairmanship. Thanks to her personal effort in working with not only her own, but other schools and parents in the Council Area, Steps were gradually taken which culminated in this year's 'Action Program.' Walnut Creek Schools are now making real progress in their program.

"In the last year there have been many other dedicated parents in leadership rolls in our area. Mrs. R. B. Connelley, Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Reid McCoy, Danville, Mrs. Major West, Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Van Wagner, Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Murphey, Lafayette, Mrs. J. D. Sloneker, Clayton, Mrs. W. W. Thompson, Concord, Mrs. Peter Hinton, Walnut Creek, Mr. Edward L. Cereda, Pleasant Hill, to name just a few.

"Don't misunderstand, the job isn't done yet, and it won't be until every family knows what to do. This training is now being integrated into the school curriculum, just as our driver education, which has proved its value. Lives will be saved and suffering alleviated in the day to day hazards we face, even if we are fortunate enough to never have to face war again.

"One last thing, don't forget, we all need The Sun—your sincere interest, and the effort, time and space you are giving to civil defense. It is one of the few problems that is EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS.

Student Art Show is Part Of Pageant

An important part of the Diablo Pageant of Arts on May 23-28 will be the Student Art Show.

Mrs. Irving Roemer of Lafayette, who is the chairman of that show, announced that she and her committee are working on an expanded objective this year. Children will be given the opportunity to display all of the types of art.

She hopes to give the public a more complete picture of the part art is playing in the public school curriculum today. Students from pre-school through junior college will display arts and craft work. Preschool and elementary level work will be displayed in the Walnut Creek Recreation Center. High school through college will be shown in store windows with a planned continuity to show the gradual development.

Assisting Mrs. Roemer will be Mrs. G. E. Max as ways and means chairman. Mrs. Max is from the Lafayette Co-operative Arts. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Marnwell of the Valley Art Center, Lafayette, will be responsible for display.

Also from the Co-operative Art Group is Mrs. John Doran who will see that entry is properly mounted.

The entire exhibit is aimed toward showing how youth expresses itself artistically in interpreting nature and the very world of childhood. It is not competitive.

Local chairman who will work with the school groups are Mrs. J. Warburton of Alamo, Mrs. Floyd Helm of Danville, Mrs. Donald Waldman of Lafayette, Mrs. A. S. Hardanov of Orinda, and Earl Allen, Walnut Creek.

FOR LAND'S SAKE Local Men Prove Value Of Local Investments

This being INVEST IN AMERICA WEEK I thought FOR LAND'S SAKE would slant toward this theme, with the emphasis on "invest in real estate." A few of the more important requisites of a good real estate investment... safety, certainly of yield, marketability, easy management, and hedge against change in the purchasing power of money.

"This is your Life", ORINCO!

Orinda (hence Orinco) is headquarters for a group of Contra Costa executives who have a spare time real estate investment business. JOE DUFFEL, Pres. and GEORGE DODGE, VP, piloted their capable Board of Directors BOB THAMAN (Orinda), MAC NIELSEN (Lafayette), SKIP VILLA (Lafayette), PETE LEY (Orinda), BARC SIMPSON (Orinda), and WARNER ODENTHAL (Orinda) through second mortgages, land purchases, and other investments.

NOW, WITH THEIR capital increased by quick profits from previous ventures, they are about to undertake the development of a one-quarter million dollar 29-unit court apartment house on Oakland Boulevard in Walnut Creek.

Were this TV, ORINCO, now you would probably be presented with a Charm Bracelet from MARCEL JEWELERS depicting your past successes. Charming, however, you already have: imagination, sound planning, ability, optimism and... GUTS.

REGINALD KITTRELL, SR., Bay Area Real Estate Appraiser, who has observed many speculative purchases of commercial property indicates that on the average: if the property has a carrier old house or other means of income which ultimately will be replaced when property is developed) the additional price paid will be two times the gross annual income of the carrier.

SAN FRANCISCO was host recently to two Texas millionaires... they were so impressed one of them decided to purchase a fashionable apartment house on Nob Hill as an investment. As he reached for his check book his friend stopped him... "Please, Frank, let me get this one, you got the lunch."

Choose your own Way to Make it Pay

There are many different ways in which investing in real estate can be profitable. These are only three:

BILL RUSSELL (William J. Russell & Son Paint Contractors — Walnut Creek) ... BILL buys property speculatively... is gifted with the ability to see into the future and has confidence in his decisions. His yield on these investments will be realized later through sales at higher prices.

ED MIELENZ (General Office Equipment Company — Walnut Creek) has just bought a business lot on which he will later build a new store for his organization. Like other sound-planning business men, he is constantly thinking of ways to strengthen the business in which he has invested.

MERV CASARANG (Lafayette) has set his investment goal as ownership of a large number of rental units. He is well along the way toward his goal... having plowed profits back from previous apartment developments into acquisition of more units.

FRANK MARSHALL (Marshall & McKinley Pioneer Realtors) is a "pioneer" from this area... he has participated in and helped facilitate a great number of real estate investments in Contra Costa County and is convinced opportunities in real estate investment are more plentiful here now than ever before.

BILL ANDERSON (Walnut Creek Realty) Life Director, California Real Estate Association, informed me that the CREA is now conducting an intensive educational program with members brokers to acquaint them as fully as possible with the real estate investment business so that they can be in the best possible position to counsel clients.

I DROVE THROUGH Cordelia (between Vallejo and Fairfield) last weekend. Cordelia is just a short distance off Highway 40. If the taxes are too high, your neighbors are bothering you, or the adobe's too hard... take a drive up there.

WHEN YOU GET BACK YOU'LL JUST LOVE IT HERE!!

Folk Dancers to Meet Tomorrow

The annual spring folk dance party sponsored by the Diablo Council of Folk Dance and Square Dance Clubs will be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Pittsburg Community Gym.

The program will include many beginner and intermediate level dances with a few of the more difficult to intrigue those who are eager to learn.

Angie Laven of Walnut Creek is in charge of the program and has asked the local teachers to call the square dances. Herb Shelley from Pleasant Hill, George Kimball and Bev Wilder from Walnut Creek, Stan Valentine from Martinez and Dr. Bob Franz of Antioch will do the calling for this program.

Eleven Records Fall in DVAL Swim Meet

Harrison Breaks National Marks, Strand Sets Two

A total of 11 records, including two national marks, were broken in the Diablo Valley Athletic League Swimming meet over the last weekend.

The meet, which was held at Mt. Diablo High School's pool in Concord, was captured in the Varsity Division by the Acalanes swimmers with 91 points.

Last year's champs, Mt. Diablo, came in second with 66 points, and Pleasant Hill and Las Lomas were third and fourth in that order with 31 and 28 points.

IN THE BEE Division it was the Las Lomas Knights who had the day well in hand as they racked up 106 points for the crown.

Other scores in the Bee Division were: Pleasant Hill, 35; Acalanes, 34; Mt. Diablo 22; and Miramonte, 11.

Record breakers in the two-day affair, which began with the trials on Friday and ended with the finals on Saturday, were headed by George Harrison of the Dons. Harrison bettered the national records in both the 100-yd. breaststroke and the 150-yd. individual medley relay.

He posted a :57.0 in the breaststroke and a :57.5 in the relay event.

In the Bee Division young Jackie Strand from Las Lomas was the standout performer, setting two new county records.

Strand was timed in :25.5 for the 25-yd. freestyle event and a flashing :56.8 in the 100-yd. freestyle.

CORKY KIESEL of Acalanes posted a new county record in the Varsity 50-yd. freestyle with a :23.9, and the Dons' 200-yd. freestyle relay team of Geissler, Kiesel, Shurtliff and Jollett were timed in 1:41.1 for a new county mark in that event.

Mt. Diablo's 200-yd. medley relay quartet set a new record for the county with a time of 1:56.7.

In the Bee Division the Knights nearly had the pool all to themselves in the matter of breaking records.

IN ADDITION to Strand's two performances the Las Lomas team posted a new record in the 100-yd. medley relay with Hunt, Robie, Ewell and Gentry being clocked in :56.0.

Pete McVean set a new mark in the 100-yd. breaststroke with a time of 1:03.3, and Billie Madden's :31.7 was good enough for a new record in the 50-yd. backstroke for the Knights.

Acalanes captured a new meet record in the 100-yd. freestyle relay when Jones, Roth, Kiesel and Locky were timed in :47.6.

BREAKING THE TAPE for Pittsburg High is Cleo Trapp as Roger Smith of Diablo's Devils tries to close the gap. Dennis Lockett filled the show spot in the 100 yard dash at the Diablo track Friday. Time for the event was 9.9.

Don Tracksters Beat El Cerrito In Varsity Meet

Victories in the field events proved the margin in Acalanes' win over El Cerrito High's tracksters in a Varsity Division meet on April 24 at Acalanes.

The Dons swept the high jump and pole vault events and took firsts in the shot put and discus in posting their 62-51 victory.

John Cadwell, with a first place toss of 32' in the shot put and a 127' 9" throw for second place in the discus, was top point earner for the Dons.

Frank Malynn's discus throw of 132' 2" was the long heave in that event.

El Cerrito took all the points in the 100-yd. dash, with Whiting leading the way in :10.3.

In the Bee Division, the Dons took seven first places to their opponents six, but lost the meet 34-49 when El Cerrito posted second and third places to make up the difference in the scoring.

El Cerrito was disqualified in the 440-yd. relay when one of their runners veered into the wrong lane or the first place figures would have been reversed.

The Dons' Smith was high point man for his team with two first places, one in the discus with a toss of 106' 2" and again in the shot put with a heave of 47' 3".

Devils Win Hectic Game With Pirates

Scoring four runs in a hectic top half of the seventh inning, the Mt. Diablo baseball team came back home from Pittsburg on April 25 with a special 9-6 victory.

The Devils were outthit, however, by the same figure: 9-6.

The Pirates opened the scoring in the last half of the first inning and went on to a 5-1 lead in the bottom half of the third.

The Devils refused to go down easily, however. They scored two runs in the fourth and one each in the fifth and sixth frames to tie the game at 5-5 going into the top of the last frame.

Then the fireworks exploded at Pittsburg.

Diablo loaded the bases without a man out—a hit batsman, an error and a walk serving the purpose.

Shortstop Art Pargament stepped into the batter's box and rapped the ball down the third baseline.

The Pirate third baseman fired the ball toward home plate, playing for the force out.

The runner from third and Pirate catcher Tony Barraco collided head-on and tumbled to the dirt in a cloud of dust.

Eventually the ball came out of the cloud.

Plate umpire Frank Powers called the runner out.

Diablo coach Carl Anacero protested the call.

Powers consulted with base umpire Chuck Toy and reversed his original call.

Arguments followed, of course, but the new decision stuck.

When play resumed the Devils managed to push three more men across the plate before the side was retired.

Pittsburg tried to come back in their half of the inning, but could manage only a single run.

The Panthers were charged with a total of eight miscues in the fielding column, and Diablo committed two errors.

Both starting batteries went the distance. For the Devils it was Rod Atup on the mound and Stafford behind the mask. Barraco caught the tosses from John Fields for the Pirates.

In the batting column, Barraco led the day with a pair of doubles. Pirates centerfielder Bob Fields, pitcher John Fields and first baseman Leon Watkins all had two singles to their credit.

For the Devils, pitcher Rod Atup had a double.

Knights in 'A' Matadors 'Bee' In 3-Way Meets

The Las Lomas Varsity and the Miramonte Bees were the two victors in a pair of three-way track meets at Miramonte High School track on April 24.

The Knight thinclads took every first place in the varsity division, compiling a total of 91 points.

Diablo High's J.V. team was second with 32½ points and the home tracksters trailed with 11½ points.

Goulat posted a 4:45.2 mile and Pete Ostrom a :10.4 in the 100-yd. dash for the Knights.

Jim Symington's 10 foot mark was good enough for a win in the pole vault for the Las Lomas team.

In the Bee meet the Matadors totaled an impressive 70-5-6 points led by sophomore Dixon Farmer, who took firsts in the 70 yd. high hurdles with :9.3, the 150-yd. dash with :15.4 and the high jump with 5' 4".

In addition to his individual victories Farmer ran the anchor leg on the 440-yd. relay team which set a new school record of :48 seconds for the distance.

Farmer's mates in the relay were Doug Moorehead, Cliff Abraham and Bob Tesman.

Randy Young leaped his best distance yet in competition in the broad jump when he taped at 18' 6" for the Matadors.

Another Miramonte first was registered by Vicky Young's 10' in the pole vault.

Diablo's "Bee" team posted 43-1-6 for second place in the meet, and Las Lomas' efforts ran up 26 points.

Ram's Locatelli Tosses One-Hit Game on Antioch Diamond

The Pleasant Hill Rams baseball team won their fifth league victory April 25 behind the one-hit pitching of Al Locatelli. The score: 3-0.

Victims of Locatelli's sharp hurling were the Antioch Panthers whose Rebstock also pitched one-hit ball.

The difference came in the fielding department, as the Panthers were guilty of three miscues.

Locatelli had a no-hitter going until pinch hitter Danny McKinney stepped up to the plate with one man out in the last inning.

McKinney broke up Locatelli's chance for fame with a three-bagger.

The Ram hurler managed to retire the side, however, without permitting McKinney to score.

The Rams single hit was a double from the bat of Shortstop Bill Dutton which came at a crucial time.

It combined with two walks and a pair of wild throws by the Panthers to tally the three runs for the Pleasant Hill nine.

The Rams played errorless ball all day in comparison to the three miscues in the field for the Panthers.

Acalanes Whips Spartans, 10-4 In League Game

The Acalanes Dons rapped out 10 hits and took advantage of three errors and six walks to win a 10-4 victory over the Spartans from Pacifica in a regulation seven-inning league game at Pacifica on April 25.

Led by the hitting of Catcher Larry Smoot, who pounded out a double and two singles in four trips to the plate, the Dons scored in the first, second and fourth frames.

Acalanes greeted Pacifica's starting pitcher, Al Burton, with a single run in the lead-off inning and came back to score five more in the second on four hits, a walk and a fielder's choice.

Smoot's two-bagger was the big blow of the scoring spree.

The Spartans came back in the bottom half of the second frame with three runs on a pair of singles, a walk and a double from the bat of Centerfielder Roy Andrews.

In the top of the fourth the Dons capitalized on two miscues and a walk, adding a pair of singles of their own, to push four more tallies across the plate, which ended their scoring for the day.

Pacifica added the final run to their total in the home half of the fourth when Andrews singled, advanced to second on a walk, stole third and scored on a fielder's choice.

In the mound department, the Dons' Steve Jordan went all the way, giving up only four hits and striking out eight Spartans.

Jordan set the home team down hitless in the last three innings.

Pacifica's Burton managed to breeze final strikes past eight of the Dons in the four innings he worked, and his relief man, Kent, fanned four more in the final three frames, allowing only two Don hits.

Smoot caught the entire game for the winners, and Anderson went all the way behind the plate for the home team.

Don Golfers Win Over Miramonte

The Acalanes golf team continued their winning streak last week by posting a 5-1 victory over the fairway squad from Miramonte.

The nine hole practice match was played on April 24 at the Orinda Country Club.

Wally Marsh led the victorious Dons with a card of 36, followed by Bill Judge's 38.

The other Don scores were: Steve Lanphere, 44; Chip Peacock, 45; Mike Downs, 46 and Dick Newman, 50.

For the Matadors, Don Miner posted the low score with a 46. He was followed in the scoring column by Bill Houston and Mike Gillivan with 48's, Doug Moorehead and Dick Miller with 56's, and Kurt Lundblad with 60.

The Pittsburg Pirates track team squeezed out a last minute victory in the 'A' meet with Mt. Diablo last Friday when their 880-yd. relay quartet came home victorious in 1:30.3 in the last event of the day.

The final score in the Varsity Division contest was 59½-52½.

In the Bee Division the Pirates had an easier time of it, racking up a comfortable win by a 70½-42½ margin.

The Pirates thinclads had double winners in Cleo Trapps who posted :9.9 in the 100-yd dash and :21.7 in the 22-yd. race, and Charley Verduzco with a :20.6 in the 180-yd. low hurdles and a leap of 20' 9" in the broad jump.

Other Pittsburg first place winners and their marks were:

DeRonen, 440-yd. run, :51.3; Lea, 880-yd. run, 1:59.6; Darone, 120-yd. high hurdles, :15.4; and Lombardo, high jump, 5' 9".

San Ramon and Antioch were right behind their neighbors with 19 and 8 points respectively for fourth and fifth places.

Acalanes High School's team could do no better than eighth place in the 'A' division with 8 points.

The neighboring Berkeley Yellowjackets rolled up 30 points for first place in the large school bracket.

In the smaller school division, the Piedmont Highlanders provided the thrills by winning the final event to emerge victorious over last year's champions, Encinal of Alameda, by a 26-25 score.

Goldman's Celebrating 59th Anniversary Sale

Goldman's an old and respected name in the history of California fashion, is celebrating their 59th Anniversary Sale at their store in the Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek.

The Walnut Creek store is the third to be opened by the Goldman family in the East Bay area. Originally founded by I. Goldman in San Francisco, the store operation was moved to Oakland in 1923.

The first Oakland store was located at 14th and Washington Streets, but was moved to the corner of Broadway and 15th Street in 1952.

Just prior to moving of the Oakland store the Goldmans opened a new store in Hayward.

Then in November of 1956 the company opened their store in Walnut Creek.

Goldman's is a third generation operation at present, with Harold Goldman, son of the store's founder, and Bruce Goldman, son of Harold, actively supervising all three stores.

The Walnut Creek store, which is joined in the Anniversary Sale by the other two Goldman's stores is an example of the growing, progressive store that is moving ahead with California under the aegis of a family of merchants with an outstanding reputation.

Your Garden Many Varieties of Roses Available in Containers

By THE GARDENER

ALTHOUGH THE bare root planting season is over, you can still plant roses, for nurseries everywhere have all the popular varieties of the various rose types available in containers.

Roses in containers are just as easily planted as bare root.

Prepare the planting hole as you do for bare root roses. Cut the can away and lift out the plant and balled dirt so as not to disturb the dirt from the roots.

SET THE PLANT, dirt ball and all, into the planting hole, making sure the rose will be at the depth it was in the container (check the dirt line around the trunk.)

Center the plant in the hole, making sure the rose will have room to spread its roots. Fill in the hole with a mixture of soil and peat moss or compost, then water to settle the mixture in hole.

Make a deep, permanent watering basin around the rose trunk, and water regularly and deeply.

Do not fertilize a newly planted rose until it is well established, about six months from planting time—then use a balanced commercial fertilizer.

NO MATTER what rose type you want to plant, you will find it available in containers.

The All American selections of 1957 include a climber and floribunda which every nursery has in stock.

The hybrid teas, grandifloras,

Garden Memo: Try Dwarfed Citrus Trees'

Here are new suggestions from our Garden Checklist:

1. Try one or several of the dwarfed citrus trees as tubed or patio plants. These trees bear heavily in tubs and are ornamental all through the year.
2. Tuberous begonia seedlings can now be set out in that shady look. The American Hybrid strain which had its origin in the Santa Cruz area is considered the world's finest.
3. Once again it's azalea planting time. Various varieties which differ in habit and sun tolerance, are available.
4. Remember, when planting anything—good soil preparation pays off.

Mrs. Ruth Basham, Walnut Creek, will represent Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross at the California Conference of Social Work which will be in session Sunday through Thursday in San Jose.

Mrs. Basham will be among some 2000 delegates from the state expected to be in attendance.

"WE ARE DELIGHTED that Mrs. Basham will represent us at the California Conference," Eldo T. Ewert, chairman of Mt. Diablo Chapter, stated, "as the American Red Cross has a deep interest in the welfare problems of California."
